

PANEL FOOT OPERATION— When you lift the panel foot you unlatch the mattress tray from the cabinet top. At the foot of the mattress tray is the latch (A) and at the top of the cabinet is a wood block that it closes against. Reach into the hand hole (B) and pull—once the bed is partially opened the pistons will assist and the bed will slowly come down to the floor and rest on the panel foot mattress support (C).